U.S. District Court of Delaware
844 N. King Street
Lockbox 31
Wilmington, DE 19801

6/28/06

Dear Judge Robinson:

04-1314 (SLR)

As per your most recent order, I am hereby notifying the court I intend to represent myself pro se in the matter of Tillman v Pepsi Bottling Group. This is due to attorney Martin Haverly's request of an excessive retainer fee of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00) to enter his appearance on my behalf. Because Mr. Haverly's office did not notify me of this until 6/21/06, I have been unable to secure another attorney by the order date. It would appear that obtaining 'justice' has a price, and it is usually reserved for those of means or those having unlimited resources.

That said, as my own attorney, I am requesting the court delay discovery proceedings for approximately 90 days, until September 30, 2006, so I may have time to prepare my case for trial. While considering this request, I ask the court keep in mind that the DDOL (Delaware Department of Labor) performed an extensive investigation into my allegations against the Pepsi Bottling Group and Teamsters Local 830, and found my claims to have merit. I will await your order in this matter.

Respectfully yours,

Marlayna G. Tillman
